We believe the study of literature helps us become better writers, readers, thinkers, and people. Our alumni go on to be publishers, authors, directors, lawyers, teachers, entrepreneurs, and organizers. Learn alongside award winning faculty in discussion and workshop-based classes to discover your distinction and forge your future.

BUILD YOUR PORTFOLIO

Through research, writing, editing, and publishing, you'll build a strong portfolio of writing samples for future programs, jobs, or grad schools.

WINDFALL LITERARY JOURNAL

Student-run journal which reviews, selects, and publishes every year.

The Clayton B. Ofstad Scholars-in-Residence program allows students to meet, learn from, and connect with professional writers outside Truman.
