TRUMAN STATE UNIVERSITY

MA

Applied Behavior Analysis and Certificate Program

Learn to implement the guiding principles of behavior analysis and the most current and effective, evidence-based treatment procedures to achieve behavior change for the client. This program prepares you for a career working as a board certified behavior analyst

MASTER OF ARTS IN APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSIS

Complete a 32 hour degree program and earn a Master's degree in Applied Behavior Analysis or complete a 24 hour certificate program.

RESEARCH BASED COHORT MODEL

32 CREDIT MASTERS PROGRAM

24 CREDIT CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

ONLINE CLASSES AND EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

WHY TRUMAN?

- We equip caring, committed, competent individuals with the knowledge to become Board Certified Behavior Analysts (BCBA).
- Be prepared to work with people from different backgrounds in schools, agencies, universities, and private practice.
- The program operates on a research-based cohort model, with 3 live sessions per course.

For more information, visit
WWW.TRUMAN.EDU
or email gradinfo@truman.edu

Graduate Admissions Contact
MADELYN LOHMAN
mlohman@truman.edu
660-785-7398

MA

Applied Behavior Analysis

MASTER'S DEGREE REQUIREMENTS:

Behavior Analysis Courses: 24 Credits

- ABA 610G - Introduction to Applied Behavior Analysis I Credits: 3
- ABA 620G - Introduction to Behavior Change Credits: 3
- ABA 630G - Introduction to Applied Behavior Analysis II Credits: 3
- ABA 640G - Foundations of Assessment and Research Credits: 3
- ABA 641G - Experimental Analysis of Behavior Credits: 3
- ABA 650G - Introduction to Functional Behavior Assessment Credits: 3
- ABA 660G - Management & Leadership in Disability Studies Credits: 3
- ABA 680G - BABC Compliance Code, Disciplinary Systems, and Professionalism Credits: 3

Internship: 8 Credits

The remaining 8 hours of coursework consists of:

- ABA 695G - Internship in Behavior Analysis Credits: 8
  Course is repeated 4 times to reach the required hours

Total Hours: 32

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university with an overall undergraduate grade point average of at least 2.75.
- $40 application fee waived for teachers.
- Personal Statement (uploaded in online application)
- Official copies of transcripts from all colleges and universities from which you earned college credit.

Note: Truman students do not need to upload their transcript but should list Truman in the academic history portion of their application.

CERTIFICATE DEGREE REQUIREMENTS:

- ABA 610G - Introduction to Applied Behavior Analysis I Credits: 3
- ABA 620G - Introduction to Behavior Change Credits: 3
- ABA 630G - Introduction to Applied Behavior Analysis II Credits: 3
- ABA 640G - Foundations of Assessment and Research Credits: 3
- ABA 641G - Experimental Analysis of Behavior Credits: 3
- ABA 650G - Introduction to Functional Behavior Assessment Credits: 3
- ABA 660G - Management & Leadership in Disability Studies Credits: 3
- ABA 680G - BABC Compliance Code, Disciplinary Systems, and Professionalism Credits: 3

Total Hours: 24

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

- Online application.
- Personal statement.
- Official transcripts.
- Background check.
- Completion of a master's degree with a GPA of at least 3.0.

Ready to Take the Next Step?
Scan the QR Code
To Start Your Application.